

Nurse Educator Scholarship
2018-2019 Academic Year
Submission Deadline September 30, 2018

The California Association of Colleges of Nursing is pleased to announce a Scholarship Program for graduate nursing students who are in or are preparing for the role of the nurse educator. Up to two $2000 scholarships will be awarded for the academic year 2018-2019.

Criteria for the award: Candidates must:

1. Be enrolled in a CACN member school graduate nursing program (Master's or doctoral) with an intent to teach. Applicants who are already in a teaching role with baccalaureate or higher degree students will receive additional consideration.
2. Maintain good academic standing with a current cumulative grade point average of 3.25 or higher.
3. Be committed to teach in a School of Nursing in California at the baccalaureate level or above for two years after degree completion.

Nomination Process: Candidates for these awards must:

1. Generate a letter indicating how one meets the scholarship criteria.
2. Be supported by a faculty member who sends a letter of recommendation on school letterhead that cites the candidate's relevant academic, clinical, and professional experience, and stipulates that the candidate meet the award criteria.
3. Submit a recent CV.
4. Submit all documents together in one package.

Selection Process:

1. Staff will review applications for completeness.
2. Complete applications (only) will be sent to Selections Committee Chair.
3. Final selection(s) will be forwarded to the CACN Executive Committee for approval.
4. Scholarship recipient(s) will be notified in October 2018, with the funds awarded upon approval.
